NEW VENUE!

For the past 24 years we have met faithfully at Camp Bethel. However, due to their recent move and current development of new facilities, we are unable to gather there this year.

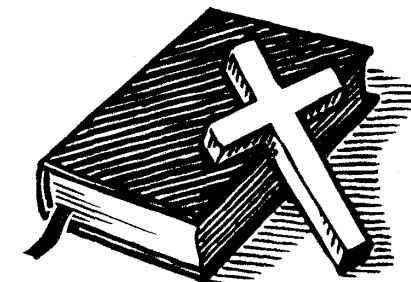

Just down the road is another great facility owned by Iowa State University and used as a summer field station. They have welcomed us to rent their camp for our retreat! This location is along the banks of Shell Creek near the mouth of Shell Canyon. You will be impressed by their high quality meeting rooms, modern dorms and gathering spaces. The scenery here is unsurpassed. We invite you to continue our annual men's retreat at this new venue!

Dorm rooms at ISU Geology Field Station

ISU Geology Field Station

The ISU Carl F. Vondra Field Station is a modern facility near Shell, Wyoming on the western flank of the Big-horn Mountains. It will serve as an ideal location for our annual Men's Retreat.

We will meet in the Smith Lodge for meals and fellowship. Our chapel activities will be in the classroom building. There are twelve dorm rooms each with 4 beds. Each dorm room has its own bathroom, sink and shower facility.

Dorm rooms are connected by broad, covered porches. There is a volleyball and a basketball court and a large campfire area at the edge of the creek. The red bluffs along Shell Creek and the scenic vista of Shell Canyon are stunning. It is ADA compliant.

The field station boasts of easy access to winter activities but because it is 'off the mountain' we also have access to snow free areas. We have free time on Saturday afternoon for exploring the area, or for simply fellowshiping with each other.
